SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH MUSIC ALBUM

SUPPLEMENT TO THE
ST. LOUIS POST-DISPATCH
SUNDAY MARCH 25TH 1900

PUBLISHED BY HURTIG & SEAMON, NEW YORK.

AS SUNG WITH GREAT SUCCESS BY TRULY SHATTUCK

TAKE ME AS I AM

WORDS BY JOE HURTIG. MUSIC BY ANDY LEWIS

1

2

TAKE ME AS I AM.

Words by JOE HURTIG. Music by ANDY LEWIS.

Andante moderato.

PIANO.

1. Nell Tay - lor was the belle of the vil - lage where she dwelt, For
2. Nell looked in to his eyes and soft - ly she re - plied, Tom man - y years she taught the coun - try school. She had suit - ors rich and grand, Who I know you are no - ble good and true, And yet you hum - ble boy, I longed to claim her hand, and of - fered wealth and sta - tion as a rule; But wish no great - er joy, than be the wife of such a man as you; Though

Copyright MDCCCXCIX by Hurtig & Seamon.

Tom a brave young man, with a big heart and strong hand, Who strange it may ap - pear, Tom I've loved you man - y years, And

p

toiled hard in a black - smith shop each day, For give to you my heart and hand this day, I'll

mf p

years he had loved Nell, far more than tongue could tell, So be your lov - ing wife, we'll hap - py be through life, Then to her in his rough way he did say:

to me Tom no more you'll have to say:

heart is true, and I love you, with you